

NOW BOULANGER'S TURN.

It is His Time and He Must Speak to the Country.

PARIS, March 15.—The Republican journals approve the action of Parliament in authorizing the prosecution of Senator Naquet and Deputies Laguerre, Laisant and Turquet for their connection with the Patriotic League.

The conservative papers reproach the Republicans for breaking away from Republican principles.

The Press says that yesterday was a marvelous day for Boulanger. It declares that the electoral platform of the Boulangerists is now complete. The Châin, the organ of the Patriotic League, says: "It is now General Boulanger's turn. He must speak to the country."

The police to-day searched the houses of many members of the Patriotic League. Persons against whom damaging evidence is found will not be arrested, but will be summoned to appear before a magistrate for examination.

MR. ANDERSON'S ACTION

In Allowing LeCaron to Hunt Evidence for the Times to be Investigated.

LONDON, March 15.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Secretary Matthews was questioned with reference to the actions of Mr. Anderson, an official of the home office, who permitted LeCaron, the informer, to look over the whole of the latter's past correspondence with the home office authorities prior to this appearing as a witness before the Carroll Commission and to select such letters as he thought would be of service to the Times.

Mr. Matthews said at the time he knew nothing of the course taken by Mr. Anderson and consequently had not given it his sanction, but when considered, that Mr. Anderson had acted properly.

Mr. Vernon Harcourt gave notice that he would submit a motion regarding Mr. Anderson's conduct when the vote is discussed on Monday next.

A BIG BEER DEAL.

The Famous Frank Brewing Company Sold in London to a Syndicate.

LONDON, March 15.—The stock of the Frank J. New Brewing Company, of Portsmouth, N. H., and Boston, Mass., has been put on the market in London. The capital is 1,300,000 pounds, divided into 500,000 pounds of 5 per cent debentures, 400,000 pounds of 7½ per cent preference shares, and 400,000 pounds of ordinary shares. Samuel Utermeyer, of New York, who negotiated the sale, is appointed one of the directors in England and the issue is made good by Sir Samuel Scott & Co. who issued the stock of the Bass and Worthington breweries. The English directors are William Haygate, E. Ind and R. P. Pryor, large English brewers, Samuel Utermeyer and Frank Jones. The directors in America are Asa P. Potter, Patrick Collins, and Messrs. J. C. O'Connell, Sinclair and Utermeyer. The vendors guarantee a net annual profit of 15 per cent for three years.

To Make a Scapegoat of Webster.
LONDON, March 15.—It is again reported that, to save themselves from defeat the Tories will accept the resignation that Sir Richard Webster, the Attorney General, placed at the disposal of the Government. The Attorney General is certainly in bad odor with the party, on account of his espousal of the Times view upon which he staked not only his own reputation, but that of the Government. Lord Salisbury is said to be strongly opposed to throwing overboard the Attorney General, but is in favor of the Government's standing by the resignation. He has strong hopes of creating the present storm and preventing a dissolution of Parliament. There are, however, some members of the Government who are not so sanguine nor so tender-hearted as the Premier, and these mem-the Liberal's preservation in view, favor the Government. Gladstone's influence on the results of his resistance upon the Government committing themselves to the Times case, and believe that in this case the Liberal's cause will be saved. The Liberals are loudly calling for Gladstone's dismissal, and since the Gladstonian victory at the Barnsey election this demand is more potent.

The great question noticed in the House of Commons since the Times' article. That event seems to have revolutionized the mood and attitude of parties. Tories keep themselves very close, and make no move. The Liberalists roar and cheer that rise from the opposition benches. Mr. Parnell no longer hurries through the lobbies of the House. He has a hunted look which the experiences of the last year have given to his face, but lingers in the lobby chatting and surrounded by eager

The Great Copper Failure.
LONDON, March 15.—The Comptoir D'Escompte, the copper ring, and the Société Des Métaux monopolize the attention of financiers. It is still hoped that all will eventually meet their liabilities. Although the magnitude of the losses is appalling, the effect will be circumscribed among those actually interested. Neither a widespread panic, nor a general financial disaster, and the situation is improving, will ensue. The outlook is better. The scepticism of American mine owners regarding the unanimity of the English owners to accept the reduction of output, which they have been greatly overcome, the English American companies working harmoniously.

A Sensation Promised.

LONDON, March 15.—Lord Salisbury, Lord Carnarvon and Sir William Vernon Harcourt have been subpoenaed by Sir Charles Russell.

None of the Parnellite counsel will participate in the attack in the House of Commons on Attorney General Webster.

Should Mr. William O'Brien accept his release from prison on the terms offered by the Commission, it is expected that he will appear in the House of Commons and give an account of his prison experience.
